EXECUTIVE SECRETARY

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS: The education of our children is paramount to the establishment and maintenance of a sound, democratic, form of government that will insure justice and opportunity for all men; and

WHEREAS: Good teachers in our schools represent the greatest asset for good government in our state as they create the atmosphere in the classroom that permits effective and lasting transmission of the principles of our democracy; and

WHEREAS: The South Dakota Education Association is celebrating its seventy-fifth anniversary of service to educators and citizens of our state and in that time has assisted in creating both the system and the atmosphere that encourages the principles expounded above, and

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Joe Foss, Governor of the State of South Dakota do hereby declare and proclaim the week of April 6 through April 12, 1958, as

and urge the citizens of this state to join with me in paying honor to the teachers and their professional organization for the great contributions they have made to our way of life. I further urge that all public organizations, student associations, Parent-Teacher groups and others hold appropriate programs during the week to honor our teachers and their association for their untiring efforts for the schools of South Dakota.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota to be affixed this 6th day of January, 1958.
